

Re-Elect Councillor Zoë Royer

Vote for a Devoted and Experienced Leader on Nov. 15th!
zoeroyer.ca

Zoë, Community Supporter

Zoë with MLA Jane Shin and Tae Kwon Doe National Team at the Korean Cultural & Heritage Society Festival Pre-launch.

Did you know? Councillor Zoë Royer donates a significant portion of her Council salary back to the community.

Zoë volunteers & promotes community groups

Zoë with MP Fin Donnelly & MLA Linda Reimer at Golden Spike Days Festival

Serving cake at Rocky Point Park on Canada Day!

Zoë acts with business sense & social conscience

As a successful health administrator, Zoë Royer brings a rare mix of strong business skills and sincere concern for social issues.

Zoë engages the community:

- Chair, Land Use Committee
- Library Board Trustee
- Chair, Arts & Culture
- Chair, Heritage Commission
- Vice-Chair, Environmental Protection
- Vice-Chair, Economic Development
- Vice-Chair, Community Care
- Chair & Founder of KaBoom! The Port Moody Art Explosion!

Looking Forward

In the next four years, Zoë will push for:

- ✓ not bigger, but better developments with more employment space
- ✓ nature & wildlife corridor protection
- ✓ Rocky Point Park expansion
- ✓ revitalized Inlet Sports Field
- ✓ enhanced Library space

And make Port Moody a better place to live by:

- ✓ making it affordable for all of us to live, work and play in Port Moody
- ✓ planning better access to transportation and tackling traffic congestion
- ✓ delineating more green space and park space

Vote Nov. 15th to help protect what Zoë Royer stands for:

- ✓ balance, sound business plans and transparent governance
- ✓ protection of recreation programs and our beautiful creeks & trails
- ✓ strong fire & police services

"Serving on Council and working with all levels of government is about creating the kind of future we want for our children." - Zoë Royer

"As an artist and business woman, I'm proud that the City of the Arts, its opulence of creative talent and its internationally recognized artists attract visitors!

Nurturing artists makes a lot of economic sense. Let's continue to grow Port Moody as a destination for the arts." - Zoë Royer

Testimonials

"At the core of it, true leadership is about caring for people- and Zoë is a strong, compassionate leader who will continue to listen and advocate for the families in our diverse communities."

Jane Shin, MLA for Burnaby-Lougheed
Deputy Economic Sectors Spokesperson for Trade, Immigration & Multiculturalism

"Zoë is passionate about Port Moody. She has the right balance of experience and common sense, and is doing a great job on Council. I'm happy to continue to support Councillor Royer."

Fin Donnelly, Member of Parliament,
Coquitlam, Port Moody and New Westminster,
Deputy Critic for Fisheries and Oceans, Deputy Critic for Infrastructure

"I want my Councillors to care for the community and be responsible for their actions. Councillor Zoë Royer fits that bill for me. She has my vote!"

Gene Vickers, District 96 Governor,
Toastmasters International

"You can count on Zoë to stand up for the protection of Port Moody's outstanding ecological assets both on council and behind the scenes. Her thoughtful advocacy is respected and valued by local environmental stewards."

Ruth Foster
Mossom Creek Hatchery co-founder

"Zoë listens to the community. With her understanding of the environment, she is someone I want to have on Council."

Elaine Golds
Port Moody Freedom of the City recipient

"For many years, I have known Zoë as a leader and a woman of integrity and character. She and her family have an impeccable record of commitment to our City. It is without hesitation that I support Zoë for Council."

Sandy Liles
former Port Moody Councillor

"Zoë's unique mix of strong business skills, concern for social issues and engaging personality is needed on Council. Zoë has my vote!"

Sheila Francis, Realtor
Director, Eagle Ridge Hospital Foundation

"I've had the pleasure of working with Zoë on various projects and find she puts a lot of thought and enthusiasm in all she does. Zoë is dedicated to the citizens of Port Moody and wants to make sure it remains a vibrant city to live and do business in."

Rose Kapp
Director, Port Moody Arts Centre Society Board

Re-Elect Councillor Zoë Royer